鳥　山　　明

I got on a bike for the first time in a while…and my legs turned into rubber from just a short ride. I went to Disneyland with my kids, ran around the park with them…and the next day I was in bed with a fever. Then we went to the beach. I'd always had a good arm, so I showed off by skipping stones against the water…and my arm got so sore I couldn't even draw. I'm so out of shape. Forget work, I have to go out and play more!

—Akira Toriyama, 1993

STORY AND ART BY AKIRA TORIYAMA

Bulma
The brilliant heiress of the Capsule Corporation.
Vegeta
The prince of the Saiyans, he was Goku's arch-rival. He's also the father of Bulma's child!
Hercule
CHAMPION
An ordinary wrestler who became world-famous when he took credit for defeating Cell. In the original Japanese manga he's known as "Mr. Satan" (it's supposed to be a scary wrestler name).

Son Goku was Earth's greatest hero, and the Dragon Balls—which can grant any wish—were Earth's greatest treasure. After many adventures, Goku got married and had a son, Gohan, who grew up to be even stronger than he was. Finally, while fighting to save the world from the evil Cell, Goku nominated Gohan as his chosen successor... and then gave his life to help Gohan defeat the monster! The Dragon Balls had the power to bring the dead back to life, but only once per person, and Goku had already died before. So Goku became the toughest person in the afterlife, while on Earth, years passed. Unaware who had saved them from Cell, the people of Earth gradually forgot about the existence of true heroes...

THE MAIN CHARACTERS

Son Gohan's father, he was one of the last of the Saiyans, an almost extinct alien race. Tragically, he died fighting Cell. (See the halo?)
Son Goku
Son Gohan
Probably the greatest martial artist on Earth, he owes his super strength to the fact that he's a half-human, half-Saiyan. His mother, Chi-Chi, is human.
Hercule's daughter and Gohan's classmate.
Videl
Gohan's half-Saiyan younger brother.
Son Goten
The half-Saiyan son of Vegeta and Bulma.
Trunks
